View of Last Week

Visiting Rotarians: Rich Seils – Dublin/Worthington

Invocation: Tom Bates

Guests: Ted Danziger-guest of Tim Huffman; LeeAnn McKee-guest of Peggy Tidwell; Josh-guest of Lyle Brown; Adam Parsons-guest of Steve Roeder

Games of Chance: Mark Murphy got the cash...nothing new there. Your faithful scribe was distracted and didn't record whose ticket was pulled, but the ace stayed face down and the pot grows.

Happy Bucks: Gloria Heydlauff had a buck for the birth of her first grandchild. Jamie Graver contributed for a great fishing trip in the Caribbean. Tim Huffman laid a pile of cash down for his grandson's good health and a bunch of other stuff not quite understandable...thanks for the contribution Tim. Matt Rappolt had a buck for Tom Bates referencing his NE Patriots in the invocation.

Sergeant At Arms: Steve Hess wrapped his comeback as SAA with his latest inspiration...everyone stands up and stays up with points for being a Paul Harris Fellow, Past President, Ever had a year of perfect attendance, Sure is going to the fundraiser, Bought a raffle ticket this morning, Was at the meeting last week, Did not take booze away from the gift exchange, Was in the military, Has facial hair, Sitting at Hess' table then minus points for sitting in the back of the room, sitting at Huffman's table, is the current president of a service club. Anyone left standing with 3 or less points paid a buck. Nothing if not creative Steve.

Announcements: Peggy Tidwell reminded everyone of the Columbus MagicFest show at the Palace Theater. Rotarians get discounted tickets. Michael Braunlin circulated a thank you card from the Stevenson Elementary principal. Tim Mardas provided a fundraiser update. Event is scheduled for March 10th at the Bryce Eck Center. We will have a similar format to last year but no gambling. More details to come. Submit guest names before next week's meeting son invites may be mailed.

Thank you Doug and Matt for your dedication to Rotary!

Speaker: Club Assembly day! Here's what's happening in Tri-Village Rotary:

Vocational Service – Lyle Brown discussed 4 Way Speech contest, Vocational recognition awards, Rotary Youth Leadership assembly, Golden Bear and Bobcat awards.

International Service – Steve Hess revealed a planned collaboration with other Rotary clubs on an RI project.

Rotary Foundation – Doug Torrance noted RI has met the $200 million Polio Plus challenge. TV Rotary now ranks third in our District for Foundation money raised. Thanks Doug for being TV Rotary's first ever District chair.

Literacy – Michael Braunlin reminded everyone we remain active tutoring at Stevenson Elementary and invited additional member participation.

Community Service – Bob Argo rattled off an impressive list of service projects such as Rt 315 trash pickup, Race For The Cure, Dictionary distribution, Salvation Army bellringing, Heart to Heart Food pantry (this year's fundraiser beneficiary) and the Tri Village Mentor League among others.

Fundraising – Tim Mardas provided more detail about this year's fundraiser including Steve Sims great catering again, Watershed Distillery to provide quality booze, a larger silent auction (still can use more contributions), tickets at $50/person or two for $75 for non-members and 100% of the proceeds going to the Heart to Heart Food pantry. Printed invitations will be available at next week's meeting. Do not RSVP to Mark Murphy, do to Chris Graff.

Newsletter – Mark Spangler...I scribble on the back of a placemat, I snap my digital camera, I sit at my laptop, I hit the Enter button to send and I try not to express any bitterness that my co-chair is playing golf daily in Arizona...hit 'em straight Jerry...NOT.

Anyone wishing to not have to put up with my ramblings in the meantime are invited to volunteer to join me on the committee...please?
